

Other disclosures we may make

We will disclose your personal information to third parties:

In the event that we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we will disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets subject to the terms of this Privacy Notice.

If DaVita or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by it about its customers will be one of the transferred assets.

If we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms of supply terms and other agreements with you or the company you work for; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of DaVita, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and to prevent cybercrime.

Transfer to Third Party Countries

Within the scope mentioned above, it is possible that we may transfer your personal information to other countries (including non-EEA countries) that may have different privacy standards than yours. However, when transferring your personal information to such countries, we have established

The right to restrict processing: you have the right, in certain circumstances, to ask DaVita to temporarily stop the processing your personal data.

The right to data portability: you have the right to obtain and reuse your personal data if you want to move to a different service provider.

The right to object: you have the right, in certain circumstances, to object to the processing of your personal data by DaVita.

Automated decision making and profiling: you can request a review of automated processing if they believe the rules aren't being followed.

To exercise any of these rights, including to make a subject access request, please submit a request form.

To fulfil your request, we will need to see:

Proof of your identity. Please do not send us original copies of your identification documents. If you are applying on behalf of a child or someone else you are responsible for, you will need to provide proof that you are entitled and authorized to act on their behalf.

Following your request, and provided that you have included all required supporting information within your request, we will get back to you within the one-month timeframe.

How to Contact the Appropriate Authority

Should you wish to report a complaint or if you feel that DaVita has not addressed your concern in a satisfactory manner, you may contact the
